Fall Leadership Conference

Workshops + Activities

FLC 2025 is sure to be a blast for all who attend! Whether you're a chapter president, officer, or just a member, you don't have to look far to find something for you. Our workshops, put on by both professionals and state officers, feature topics ranging from leadership development, running for state office, and parliamentary procedure, all the way to investing, resumes, social media, and even a Shark Tank-themed workshop! These workshops will take place on Monday morning, but be prepared to bring your A-game for Extreme Jeopardy on Sunday night. Also, keep your eyes peeled for the Goosechase challenges throughout the conference. We can't wait to see you there!

What To Expect

The Fall Leadership Conference is packed full of learning and networking opportunities throughout! People come from all over the state to learn from business professionals each year. North Dakota FBLA offers various workshops on topics including but not limited to: finance, marketing, entrepreneurship, and more. Within workshops, members are asked to participate to give their full attention and try their best at networking with others. Those in attendance may also enjoy a fun game night on Sunday evening, right after the state fundraiser takes place. Overall, a lot of fun, learning activities to help unite members state-wide.
